2026

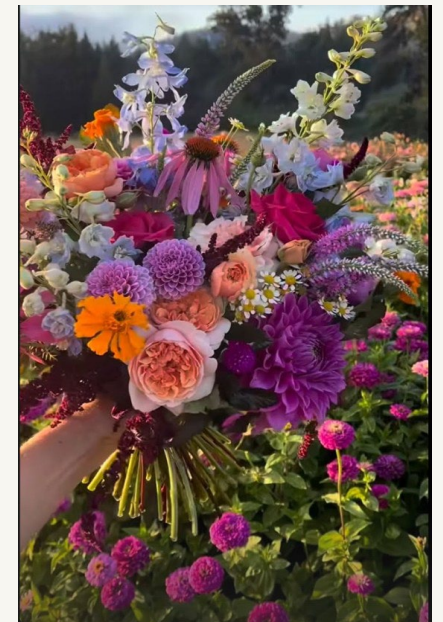

Welcome

Thank you for your interest in having Woods Goods Flower Farm create beautiful blooms for your wedding or event.

Rooted in seasonal growth and thoughtful design, our flower farm and studio work together to provide bespoke wedding florals throughout the year. We take on a limited number of weddings annually, allowing each celebration to be approached with care, creativity, and an intentional, garden-inspired aesthetic. Every wedding is an opportunity to craft something deeply personal, abundant, and beautifully memorable.

Every couple receives a custom floral proposal tailored to their season, setting, and vision. We'll guide you through bloom and foliage options (including our own farm-grown flowers), colour palettes, vessels, textures, and the finer details that bring your florals to life.

The Woods Goods flower farm and studio is based in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland, and we regularly service weddings across the Sunshine Coast and Sunshine Coast Hinterland. Weddings outside of the Sunshine Coast may also be considered, subject to availability.

About

From our flower farm in Ninderry, QLD, florist and grower duo Treanna and Joel Woods bring blooms to life from seed to stem. A creative pair, Joel is a qualified carpenter who explores painting, drawing and permaculture. Treanna has always wanted her own floral studio and what better way to be surrounded by flowers than also growing them herself? Today, they both grow, harvest, and design with flowers, turning seasonal blooms into stories of colour, movement, and joy.

Farming and designing with flowers since 2016, our work is deeply inspired by the simple beauty of blooms gathered fresh from the garden. Our approach celebrates movement, texture, and the natural rhythms of the seasons—creating arrangements that feel organic, abundant, and as though they’ve been hand-picked moments before being placed.

While a soft, romantic palette often guides designs, we are inspired first and foremost by our clients. From subtle and tonal to bold and expressive, we delight in working with a wide range of colour palettes, styles, and creative visions, ensuring each floral story feels personal, considered, and true to those it’s created for.
